

George Mason University NW Student Housing VIII

J.E. Richards Electric, Inc. performed a full electrical installation of two new, out-of-the-ground student housing buildings, interconnected with extensive site infrastructure. The project featured eight floors in total, including 609 beds and a penthouse.

George Mason University Housing provides a student-centered community that supports the academic mission of the university.

Market:

Healthcare & Institutional

Date:

2011

Location:

Fairfax, VA